The PhD will be jointly supervised by Pr. Jean-Marie Pinon and Prof. Lionel Brunie.

Jean-Marie Pinon is the former head of the department of computer science of INSA Lyon. Jean-Marie Pinon has a long experience in multimedia information retrieval. Jean-Marie Pinon has led numerous national projects in this domain and has been member of numerous editorial committees of scientific journals and conferences in this domain of research. In 2008, along with Lionel Brunie, he co-founded the "Distribution, Information Retrieval, Mobility (DRIM)"

Two major publications in the field proposed for the PhD :

Expected collaborations:
The PhD student will be a member of the MDPS International Doctoral College (http://liris.insa-lyon.fr/lionel.brunie/MDPS) at INSA Lyon. As part of this program, the student will have the opportunity to collaborate with the computer science laboratories at the University of Passau (Prof. Harald Kosch) in Germany and the University of Milan (Prof. Ernesto Damiani) in Italy.

Background required from the applicant:
An excellent background in Computer Science is required.

Existence of a PDF file detailing the proposal ("yes" or "no") : no
(see guidelines on the website www-csc.utt.fr)